Jamieson Handicap - 10 April 2010

The APSOC season got off to a start with the now traditional opening event, the Jamieson Handicap. Old Xaverians scored a trifecta of places in the open race to provide the foundation of their 16th win in the event. The OX women made it a double with their fourth win in succession. Young Tessa Craig of Old Haileybury streeeted the women's field to be fastest time and record the best ever OH time for a female at this event with her 18:02 performance. Old Brighton women were record setters also with 105 points and sixth place – their best ever place and points score for the event.
